

Vacancy Announcement

Police Officer (Instructor) GS-083-07

Click here for Federal Pay Tables

Announcement Number: CAPNWC01-0083-106

Date Opens: April 17, 2003

Date Closes: April 24, 2003

Location: Washington Navy Yard

About Us: NDW is the regional provider of base operating support to ten Naval installations in the National Capital Region. Services provided include public works, human resources, information technology, supply, air operations, ceremonial support, public safety and environmental and safety. The ten installations are Washington Navy Yard, Naval Observatory, Anacostia Annex, Arlington Service Center, Nebraska Avenue Complex, Potomac Annex, National Maritime Intelligence Center, Solomons Island, National Naval Medical Center and Naval Air Facility Washington.

About the Job: This position is located within the Security Division, Training Branch, Naval District Washington. Incumbent serves as a training instructor and is a resident subject matter expert and resource person for the following instructional areas: laws of evidence, terrorism, arrest, search and seizure, basic criminology, accident investigations, specialized criminal investigative techniques, specialized police operations, response techniques, riot and crowd control techniques, preliminary police investigations and other specialized and technical instructional areas related to law enforcement.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: In the body of your resume please address the following: knowledge of law enforcement procedures, both Federal and local laws; ability to develop and revise training course materials; ability to plan lessons, analyze statistical data and meet overall training objectives; knowledge of professional instructional methods and theories used in a formal classroom environment; and ability to communicate both orally and in writing.

To apply to this announcement please click on link below:

http://www.resume.hroc.navy.mil/vacancy/vac_preview3_N1.asp?vac_id=38647